Are you providing care for a loved one? We can help.

As a caregiver, you are depended upon for your support by your family and friends. As rewarding as that is, sometimes it is difficult. The Caregiver Advisor Program provides information and support services to help caregivers and grandparents raising grandchildren cope with their caregiving roles.

FREE CAREGIVER ADVISORY PROGRAM

Am I a caregiver?

Yes, if you're an unpaid family member or friend who helps with:

- Rides to medical appointments.
- Shopping.
- Aiding in activities of daily life such as:
 - Getting dressed.
 - Cooking.
 - Showering.
 - Cleaning.
- Collecting mail or picking up medicine.

Caregiver Advisor Offerings

- Information about available community resources/services.
- Assistance in gaining access to community resources.
- Support groups, education and counseling for caregivers.
- Respite care (temporary or intermittent relief for caregivers).
- Supplemental services to complement caregiver services.
- Information about legal rights including visitation, guardianship, adoption and formal caregiving relationships.
